2) Free Buddhist Translation Donations for University and Public Libraries

Kalavinka Press, a publisher of translations of Buddhist Classics from the Indian and Chinese traditions, has received a grant to donate complete sets of its translations to college and university libraries and public libraries in the U.S., Western Europe, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Singapore. (For details on how to easily obtain these donations, see below.)

These 14 books consist of annotated translations of bodhisattva path sutras, treatises, and commentaries by such luminaries as Nāgārjuna (8 titles), Vasubandhu (1 title), and Tiantai Zhiyi (2 titles). To facilitate deep study, all translations are available with facing-page source text in both traditional and simplified Chinese scripts. Two titles include the Sanskrit text.

How to Easily Obtain the Free Buddhist Translation Donations for Libraries

All that we require to ship complete book sets to a college or university library or to a public library is a very brief email note to Kalavinka Press (kalavinkapress@gmail.com) from a librarian or library acquisitions personnel:

- a) acknowledging that the library is willing to include these 14 books in their collection;
- b) stating whether the library prefers editions with facing-page Chinese or English only; and
- c) the data necessary to fill out the “*required fields” in this printer's online dropship order form:

Printer's Online Order Form (asterisk [*] indicates "required field")

a) Company [Library] Name

*b) Contact Name

*c) Country

*d) Address Line 1

e) Address Line 2

*f) City

*g) State/Province

*h) Postal Code

*i) Phone (Any institutional or contact phone will do. This is for UPS.)

*j) Email Address (Any contact email will do. This is for shipping & UPS delivery notifications.)

Note: Your data is never shared with anyone or used for anything other than placing this order.

Once Kalavinka Press receives this data, we will ship the complete translation book set. After current grant funds run out, we will continue to ship more book sets as we receive more funds for free book donations.

Important: Due to limited shelf space in university and public library collections, many librarians and/or acquisitions personnel will require a recommendation from a faculty member, graduate student, or patron before they will evaluate the requested title(s) and initiate their acquisitions process, hence the necessity of the above note directly from library personnel. (This offer is for "complete sets" only.)

The quickest and easiest way to evaluate the titles is via the website:

(<http://www.kalavinka.org/index.html>) and via the dedicated book pages on the site where the entire front matter including introductions and tables of contents are posted.

Extensive excerpts from the English text of each translation are posted on the "Dharma Jewels" web page: (http://www.kalavinka.org/Jewels/jewels\_toc.htm)
